

Supply List

Painting with Watercolor

This is a basic supply list to get you started

Watercolor

Paint

Red – a red, red such as Winsor

Yellow – a lemon yellow, such as auerolin

Blue – a warm blue, such as Antwerp

A cool blue, such as ultramarine

Brown – raw umber or sepia

*there is no white paint in pure transparent watercolor, white and light is made by the water and white paper

Tubes are best, size and brands vary.

Around .27 fl oz is a good size. Tube sets

Are O.K and economical for beginning. (you will not use the white or black)

Winsor Newton Cotman, and Golden are the best. Grumbacher and Holbein are other brands.

Paper

Watercolor pad med to heavy weight

90 - 140 lb. approximately 12 X 18 (arches)

Palette

White plastic with a lid and area in the center

For mixing colors

Brushes

Soft hair – synthetic sable like

1 inch, ½ inch flat

2 rounds

Misc. Supplies

Water container – large

Paper towels & rag/towel

Soft lead pencil & eraser

Optional supplies

Blow dryer

Tracing paper or drafting vellum 12 X 18

Salt shaker

Small spritzing water bottle