

Jewelry Instructors

Beginning September 2026 at the Armory Art Center

Must be able to teach in person at the Armory Art Center

Applicants must be familiar with a wide range of jewelry/metalsmithing techniques and have knowledge of tools and equipment safety. Must be reliable, organized, and able to handle all aspects of a studio with strong communication and instruction/education skills. We are looking for instructors who demonstrate professional expertise to guide and motivate students in a productive and well-equipped studio and creative community.

Silversmithing or Goldsmithing Skills desired:

Sterling silver or gold fabrication, enameling, stone-setting, vacuum or centrifugal casting, wax carving, engraving, chasing and repousse, forming and raising.

We are looking for instructors to teach any of the following for Adults or Teens

- Introduction to Jewelry & Metalsmithing
- Intermediate Jewelry & Metalsmithing
- Beginning Wax Carving & Casting
- Advanced Wax Carving & Casting
- Independent Studio all Levels
- 3D Rendering

We are also looking for instructors to teach weekly Adults or Teens in alternative materials or methods in Jewelry making for adults or teens:

- Digital Technology in Jewelry/3D rendering software
- Beadmaking
- Pearl-stringing
- Wire-wrapping
- Precious metal clay

Time ranges from:

9:30-12:30pm, 1:30-4:30pm or 6:00-9:00pm

Monday through Saturday afternoon.

Information/Application

Send resume and images/portfolio to Vita Litvak at educationdirector@armoryart.org

This is a contract position – rate of pay is determined by type of class or workshop, length of class/workshop, enrollments and class fee as determined in accordance with the Armory's program scale/formula

Applicant must pass a background check prior to teaching